

Assessment Showcase 2010

Program Assessment: How to Do It Well
April 8, 2010
Student Memorial Union

8:30 am – 8:55 am Registration and continental breakfast.....Rincon Room

9:00 am – 9:15 am Welcome
Gwendolyn Johnson, Office of Instruction and Assessment

Recognition for Achievement in Assessment
Gail Burd, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs

9:15 am – 9:40 am Overview of Program Assessment
Debra Tomanek, Office of Instruction and Assessment
Lori Goldman, Student Affairs
Program assessment, done well, results in information that is useful to faculty, students, and staff alike. This session will stress the importance of program assessment in improving teaching and learning.

9:45 am – 10:15 am Assessing Graduate Programs
Dianne Horgan, Graduate College
This session offers hints for graduate program assessment, with an emphasis on new tools that are available in Mosaic.

10:25 am – 11:00 am Tools for Program Assessment
Anne-Marie Hall, Writing Program
Jerry Dickey, Fine Arts
This session will feature a variety of tools that may be useful for program assessment. Examples include rubrics, portfolios, student performances, and evaluations.

11:05 am – 11:30 am Program Assessment within the Colleges: How Others Do It
These sessions provide an opportunity for attendees to see examples of assessment practices outside of their own college.

Fine Arts.....Copper Room
Humanities and SBS.....Pima Room
Engineering and Nursing.....Tubac Room
CALS and Science.....Rincon Room
Business.....Picacho Room

11:35 am – 12:00 pm Program Assessment within the Colleges: How You Do It
These sessions provide an opportunity for attendees to see examples of assessment practices within their own college.

Fine ArtsCopper Room
Humanities and SBS..... Pima Room
Engineering and Nursing.....Tubac Room
CALSRincon Room
Student Affairs.....Picacho Room

