

National Survey of Student Engagement

NSSE 2006 – Highlights

University College (UNVC)

- UNVC seniors reported that they more often ‘worked with other students on projects during class’ than the AAU sample of seniors. UNVC seniors also reported that they less often ‘made a presentation in class’ than the UA and AAU sample.
- UNVC first-years less often reported that they ‘worked with classmates outside of class to prepare class assignments’ than the UA and AAU sample.
- UNVC seniors reported that they less often ‘received prompt written or oral feedback from faculty on your academic performance’ than the UA and AAU sample.
- Larger numbers of UNVC seniors indicated that they ‘plan to’ or have completed a ‘practicum, internship, field experience, co-op experience, or clinical assignment’, ‘community service or volunteer work, and ‘plan to or have ‘worked on a research project with a faculty member outside of course or program requirements’ than the UA and AAU samples
- Fewer numbers of UNVC seniors indicated that they ‘plan to’ or have participated in a ‘culminating senior experience’ than the UA and AAU samples.
- When asked to what extent their institution has contributed to ‘thinking critically and analytically’, UNVC seniors reported less experience than the UA sample and AAU peers.
- UNVC seniors reported more experience with ‘working effectively with others’ than the UA and AAU samples.
- Larger numbers of UNVC seniors reported that they would ‘probably’ or ‘definitely’ attend the same institution again if they could start over again.

See Full Report